Message from the Vicar

Dearly beloved in Christ,

In Acts 17:27, the Apostle Paul declares a powerful truth to the philosophers of Athens: “He is actually not far from each one of us.”

Speaking to Epicureans and Stoics who viewed God as distant and uninvolved, Paul challenges their thinking. God is not remote or indifferent—He is near, present, and personally accessible.

Paul explains that God created humanity with a purpose: that we might seek Him, reach out for Him, and truly find Him. This reveals the heart of a relational God who desires closeness rather than distance. The Scriptures affirm this truth repeatedly. In Jeremiah 23:23, God asks, “Am I only a God nearby... and not a God far away?” Psalm 145:18 assures us, “The Lord is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.” And James 4:8 invites us, “Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you.”

Even today, in the midst of struggles and uncertainties, many feel that God is far away. But Acts 17:27 reminds us otherwise—He is right here, not hidden, but waiting for us to seek Him and know Him personally. As Jesus Himself promises in Matthew 28:20, “Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

In Christ's love

Rev. Prakash Thomas
